to the unsuccessful tenderer if his tender is not accepted.

4. The tender should be accompanied by a Schedule showing the rates at which bags of food-grains will be transported to the several godowns mentioned in the Schedule from the Railway Goods Shed.

5. Final acceptance of the tender will rest with the Director of Food Supplies, who does not bind himself to accept the lowest or to assign any reason whatever for the rejection of any tenders.

6. Each tenderer should produce a solvency certificate issued by the Amildar of the Taluk.

7 The successful tenderer will furnish a cash security of Rs. 1,000 as Deposit for the proper fulfilment of the contract and to ensure for the proper conveyance of the Government goods entrusted to him.

8. If the contractor gives room for any complaint such as pilferring of the goods on the way, his deposit amount will be liable to be forfeited.

9. The successful tenderer should arrange for the prompt transportation of the goods to the Godowns as directed by the Officer of the Food Supplies in charge of this work in the Goods Shed.

10. Should there be any delay in removing the consignment and gives room for congestion in the Goods Shed, the same will be arranged to be transported by means of other hired conveyance and the extra cost or loss that may result to Government will be recovered from the Contractor and his contract will be cancelled.

11 For the lorries, necessary number of coolies will have to be provided by the tenderer and he will himself bear the cooly charges also. The rates to be furnished will be inclusive of these charges. He must be able to clear, when required, a maximum number of about 5,000 bags per day.
